

WATER TREATMENT APPRENTICE

Position Description:

Long standing company in the growth phase of their lifecycle looking for a candidate who is passionate about customer service and working with their hands in the NYC area. You must be a responsive individual that is enthusiastic about having a schedule that changes regularly. Someone with a can-do attitude that is able to get the job done under varying circumstances and last minute changes. The Apprentice is expected to report to work at 5:30 AM on Delivery days. This is a full-time, entry-level position. We will fully train the right individual in all facets of this position.

POSITION WILL ENTAIL THE FOLLOWING:

- Assisting with water disinfections after a training period
- Performing deliveries under direction of Delivery Manager
- Driving small delivery truck in the NYC metro area
- Assisting Construction team
- Drum handling, washing, disposing
- Transferring of chemicals under low pressure
- Setting up and unpacking orders
- Inspecting merchandise
- Following safety procedures
- Training for and obtaining a 7G Pesticide License
- Other related duties as assigned by Delivery Manager

REQUIREMENTS:

- No experience necessary
- Positive-minded individual looking for a career
- Ability to communicate with clients in a positive manner
- Passionate, both personally and professionally
- Exhibits a "can-do" attitude in all facets of the business
- Excellent verbal & written communication skills
- Understands the value of reputation
- Reliable
- Ability to lift 40-70 pounds
- Must have clean, valid driver's license
- No problem working in Manhattan
- Ability to pass a physical & drug screening
- Criminal background check

COMPENSATION:

- Starting at $16.50 per hour. Higher hourly rates possible for experienced applicants.
- Transportation compensation to Manhattan
- Health, dental, and vision benefits after 90 days
- 80 hours of Paid Time Off
- 401K after one (1) year of employment